SCHEDULE – Project Scope and Deliverables

Programme Overview

Essex Is Green aims to effect behavioural change across communities in response to climate action by encouraging active participation of communities. The community manager is responsible for growing awareness and engagement within the community, providing expertise in managing a social media-based community. This includes balancing responding to queries and conversations quickly and accurately with allowing the community to address issues without outside interference, it is imperative that members trust the community manager to ensure these exchanges are successful. This conversational technique allows the community manager to provide sentiment analysis, alongside community metrics, to help inform ECC and partners strategic decisions and support packages. The community manager supports creating engaging and informative content in line with, and supporting, ECC, wider partners and community aims and outcomes and disseminating key messages in ways that encourage behaviour change and engagement. The role also supports the learning, training and development of its members in line with community aims.

Delivery

The following Services shall be provided to constitute delivery of the Project under this Agreement

Due Diligence

The Consultant will ensure existing Project timings and deliverables are adhered to any potential delays or changes to the project are raised and agreed with ECC at the earliest opportunity.

Project Management and Oversight

- Working in collaboration to ensure co-ordination of messaging across communication channels
- Monitor progress and outcomes relating to the delivery of the various campaigns
- Actively participate in the regular Project Meetings providing feedback on key achievements and issues faced by the various campaigns
